The staff, through the pages of the 1938 edition of The Chain pays tribute to William Holmes McGuffey, who, during his residence at the University of Virginia, devoted so much of his time to the promotion of public education and advocated the establishment of a state school system.

And when at night they cease to sing,
By this pocket still,
Their young eyes sleep beneath their wing,
Secure from every ill.

Thus may it then guard with gracious care
The little children here,
And keep a cold from every harm
By thus all watchful eye.

FINDING THE OWNER.

1. "It's mine," said Fred, showing a white-handled pocket-knife, with every blade perfect and shining. "Just what I've always wanted." And he turned the prize over and over with evident satisfaction.

2. "I guess I know who owns it," said Tom, looking at it with a critical eye.

3. "I guess you don't," was the quick response. "It isn't Mr. Raymond's," said Fred, shooting wide of the mark.

4. "I know that; Mr. Raymond's is twice as large," observed Tom, going on with his drawing-lesson.

5. Do you suppose Fred took any comfort in that knife? Not a bit of comfort did he take. He was conscious all the time of having something in his possession that did

To Lucy Webb Brown for her faithfulness, loyalty, cheerful cooperation, and helpfulness with the students and faculty, during fifteen years of service as teacher, sponsor, and librarian, we, the staff, dedicate this, the twentieth link of THE CHAIN.

APPRECIATION

ADMINISTRATION

Officers of the Administration

DR. JAMES G. JOHNSON took office as superintendent of the Charlottesville public schools on July 1, 1909, and for the last twenty-nine years has served the schools continuously. During his term of service three elementary schools, an athletic field and field house for the white children, and a new high school for the colored have been added to the system.

Dr. Johnson is writing a complete history showing the growth of education in Charlottesville.

MR. HUGH L. SULFRIDGE, principal of Lane High School since 1929, entered William and Mary College, January 1, 1906, and secured his Teacher's Diploma in 1909. He completed work for his B.A. degree in the Summer Session of 1916. Later he attended summer sessions at both Chicago University and Columbia, receiving his M.A. degree from the latter institution.

Before coming to Charlottesville he held the principalship of high schools at Coburn, Stonema, Appalachia, and Big Stone Gap.

MR. W. ALLAN PERKINS was born July 6, 1880, in Charlottesville, Virginia. He attended the Jones's University School, and later studied law at the University of Virginia. He started practicing law in 1902.

Mr. Perkins has been a member of the City School Board from September 25, 1916, to May 21, 1923; and from November 4, 1929, to date. He was elected chairman of the Board on January 21, 1932, which official position he still holds.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

AFTER three years of excessive timidity, blasé sophistication, and false self-appreciation, we entered Lane High School after summer vacation with the feeling that we were definitely on the top of the heap. At our first meeting, we elected the following officers to guide us during our final session at Lane: president, Wilbur Fitzhugh; vice-president, Jimmy Borden; secretary, Lucille Detor; and treasurer, Mildred Clarke.

Our first social function was a dance at the new city armory with music supplied by the orchestra of Vincent Tramonte. At Christmas we had a party with games, bobbing for apples, races, and refreshments. Then on the week-end of March 18, we went to see the sights of the big city of Washington. Next we all turned out for the senior play, The Whole Town's Talking, which had been given a few years previously with an all-faculty cast.

All during the year, Mr. Sulfridge and Wilbur Fitzhugh secured speakers with different careers to talk to us about the rewards and the qualifications of their particular work. These talks were beneficial in helping us determine what we would choose for our vocations.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

IN September, 1935, the present junior class entered Lane High School as the usual group of freshmen does—scared to death. At our first meeting, we elected Reid Hundley, president; Elise Graves, vice-president; E. V. Stratton, secretary; and Billy Keadle, treasurer. We took a very active part in all school organizations and began a scrapbook of snapshots to be used in the '39 CHAIN.

During our second year we were led by Alice Pritchett, president; Billy Hulvey, vice-president; Elise Graves, secretary; and Mark Congdon, treasurer.

Outstanding events in 1936-'37 included the Junior-Sophomore Dance at the Old City Armory; Elsie May Clarke's representing Lane in the Latin Tournament; Elizabeth Buford's playing the lead in the annual Players Club play, and the sophomore classes' writing Lane news in the Daily Progress.

At last we reached our junior year and chose Robert Holland, president; Gus Kardos, vice-president; Alice Pritchett, secretary; and Elizabeth Buford, treasurer. We entered heartily into all literary and athletic activities of the school and topped the social events of the year with our annual dance. We hope to make as big a "dent" in school affairs next year, when we will be full-fledged seniors.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

URRAH! At long last, after bravely surmounting the numerous obstacles of our freshman year, we reached the first pinnacle in our high school career. We were sophomores!

At the beginning of the term we held our first class meeting for the purpose of organizing. We elected the following officers: Jack Sandridge, president; Harry Lowe, vice-president; Nancy Gleason, secretary; and Bobby Baker, treasurer. To help us in the coming year, we chose as sponsors Miss Hebe Ruggieri and Mr. E. B. Smoot.

We have not been inactive this year, for many of our class have played prominent parts in our school activities. The sophomore English classes took turns in gathering school news for the section, Lane News, in the Daily Progress. Charlotte Mahan and Mary Frances Wilson had parts in the Players Club play, Coming Through the Rye. Some of us took part in the various sports, and to top it all off, we gave a dance.

As we look back with pleasure on the two short years since we entered high school, we remember many experiences, both pleasant and unpleasant. We look forward with anticipation to the next year, when, as juniors, we shall occupy a new place in high school. We hope we shall be able to fill the shoes of the juniors as well as did the juniors of the years before.

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

THE Freshman Class of 1938 entered Lane High School with the spirits of Clark, McGuffey, Venable, and other schools ingrained in the hearts of its members, but, thanks to the fine efforts of our teachers, the talks made in the various rooms by Hi-Y members, and the Freshman Mix-Up, these quickly developed into the Lane spirit.

Upon first entering we were bewildered and awe-struck by the din and confusion of changing classes, and for the first week we wondered how we would ever become accustomed to it.

At the first class meeting which was held in the assembly hall, Steve Martin was selected to lead us through our first year at Lane, but unfortunately he had to give it up. He was succeeded by John Davis, while Steve became vice-president, with Katherine McFarland as secretary and Pete Edwards as treasurer. Mr. Edward B. Smoot was unanimously chosen sponsor of the class.

Many of the freshmen have been taken into the different clubs: the Metcalf and Hayes Literary Societies, the Glee Clubs, the Players Club, and the Junior Hi-Y's each taking its share. Others have been active in sports.

After all things are considered, this has been a very good year for the freshman class, and we expect an even better time as sophomores.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The original purpose of the Student Council was to give the students an opportunity for a partial degree of self-government. In allowing them this privilege, the Council has promoted a better understanding between the student body and the faculty. It has helped to familiarize the students with the regulations and true spirit of the school.

The first meeting of the Student Council was held in September to elect officers for the fall term. From that day on it has served the school faithfully and successfully.

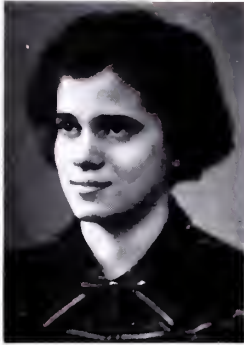

With its purpose in mind, this year's Council has tried to be a real help to the school. In order to relieve confusion it sponsored a campaign against running in the school, chatting between classes, and undue congestion of the halls.

With the help of Miss Berrey and Mr. Walker and the cooperation of various committees, the Achievement Award System was changed in several ways to make it more practical and effective. Numerous other plans were set aside for further consideration.

The students of Lane have continued to give their cooperation and support, and their Student Council has each year taken a more important part in the life and activities of the school.

GIRLS' HI-Y

This year has been a very successful one for the Girls' Hi-Y under the capable leadership of its president, Julia Cochran, and its sponsors, Miss Lillian Butt and Miss Elizabeth Thrift.

With the cooperation of the Boys' Hi-Y a "Freshman Mixer" was given in the early fall, and an assembly was presented at Christmas.

Social service varied from the maintenance of a needy woman, for whom supplies were obtained with the proceeds of a benefit bridge party, to the distribution of baskets at Christmas.

During the spring term in addition to the participation in "Boy and Girl Week", the main events were a Mother-Daughter Tea and a Faculty Tea.

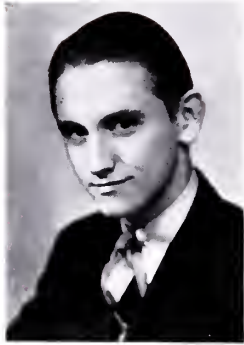

Throughout the year programs were planned and various churches attended in a body in view of again winning a gold seal certificate.

At the state convention held at Harrisonburg, one of its delegates, Alice Pritchett, was elected state vice-president.

The increased influence and efficiency of the group was marked by the success of the school-wide "4C's" campaign and Bible discussion groups.

BOYS' HI-Y

The Boys' Hi-Y began its activities for the year with the customary Freshman Mixer. This year a series of lectures by Rev. D. D. Holt, of the First Methodist Church, was conducted on the subject, "What It Means to Be a Christian." Other helpful lectures were given by Dr. Royster, of the University Hospital, and Mr. Barksdale, from the Y. M. C. A.

The club brought about the establishment of two new Hi-Y Clubs in the locality—the Boys' Junior Hi-Y of Lane High School and the Senior Hi-Y of McIntyre. Both clubs were operating independently by the end of the year. In addition to this, the organization helped the Girls' Club in conducting a "4C's" campaign, devoted to making the student conscious of clean living, clean sportsmanship, clean speech, and clean scholarship.

The two senior organizations distributed baskets of food and toys to the poor at Christmas. The club furnished books and lunches to some of the needy pupils in the country.

Representatives were sent to the District Four Hi-Y Conference held at Waynesboro this year. The club ended its activities with the usual "Best Girl Banquet and Dance."

A Girls' Junior Hi-Y was organized in September, 1937, by the Senior Hi-Y. The purpose of the organization is to further the work of Hi-Y in the school.

Its first year has been an earnest endeavor to learn and live up to the ideals of the Senior Hi-Y. The members have attended church in a group, distributed Christmas baskets, and helped the needy. The Junior Hi-Y feels it has completed a successful first year.

HAYES LITERARY SOCIETY

The Hayes Literary Society began the session 1937-'38 with the addition of thirty-six members.

Under the direction of its two very able sponsors, Mr. Smoot and Mrs. Shaw, the organization presented an assembly program on October 6, consisting of a short, though amusing, two-act play.

Following the previous year's system the society was divided into two teams, each of which was under the head of one member of the society. In this way the programs were more regularly and better prepared.

Christmas was celebrated by the society as a whole with the distribution of gifts from one to another by Santa Claus, alias President Henry Collier. The Hayes Literary Society took much pleasure and joy in contributing as much money as was possible to the colored nursery of Charlottesville.

Bringing the year to a successful close, the organization entered representatives in the reading, debating, spelling, and public-speaking contests.

METCALF LITERARY SOCIETY

To make its work more effective the Metcalf Literary Society decided to change its method of planning programs. The club was divided into three teams who vied for the honor of giving the best programs. The keen sense of competition helped much in making the programs more worthwhile.

During the first term, a part-time study was made of certain well known authors. The lives and some of the works of these men were read and discussed to familiarize the students with great characters in the literary world.

The second term work began in earnest. Many of the programs for meetings were made up of studies in reading, debating, and public speaking. These activities were discussed and examples of them given. All members were encouraged to take a part to help develop their literary talents. Some from these contests were selected to be sent to the Literary League Contest.

The assembly program, featuring Billy Tarleton, Mary Catharine Payne, Montie Meeks, Charlotte Mahan, and Betty Ann Behrendt in His First Shave, was said to have been a decided success.

CHRISTMAS PAGEANT

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

The Girls' Glee Club, aided by its forty new members, began work for the session 1937-'38 by joining with the Boys' Glee Club in the presentation of a Christmas assembly. The program, under the direction of the sponsors of the two organizations, Mrs. E. O. McCue, Jr., Miss Hebe Ruggieri, and Mr. J. E. Reitz, was centered around the story of the coming of the Christ Child. The two societies again joined in giving a dance at the new city armory on March 11, which turned out to be a great success.

On March 23 the Girls' Glee Club presented another assembly which demonstrated the rise of American music to its present day standard. So successful was the program that it was repeated for the society's annual "Guest Day" entertainment presented in the latter part of April. The Girls' Glee Club collaborated with the boys in giving a minstrel show on April 22, having charge of the entire second act.

Completing a very successful year, the organization gave a party in honor of its members, to which a few outside guests were invited.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

The name of "Glee Club" has long stood as a synonym for music in Lane High. To render pleasing and entertaining musicales and to develop musical talent are the main ideals of this club.

At Christmas time the boys' and girls' clubs united in presenting a pageant centered around the Christmas story. Lawrence Snoddy, as a principal character, took the part of Joseph, and Armond Goldstein, Sam Commings, and Bill Rhodes played the Wise Men. The part work in the chorus gave the members much needed training, and the new music used added to the pageant's effectiveness.

In March the Boys' Club aided the Girls' Club in staging a program tracing the history of American music.

The annual minstrel climaxed the club's program activities. This year the minstrel was divided into two parts, the first being in the conventional style and the second, a night club scene. Main attractions of the minstrel were endmen Bill Rhodes, Sam Commings, Billy Tarleton, and Gilbert Campbell, and interlocutor Lawrence Snoddy.

Highlights of the social activities were the annual dance and the party given in honor of the sponsor-producer, Mr. John Reitz.

COMIN' THRU THE RYE

PLAYERS CLUB

The Players Club has had a very busy and successful year through the efforts of the president, Hannah Grahsl; the sponsors, Miss Bolen and Mr. Nickels; and the club as a whole.

The aim of the club was not to try to get more members than any other club, but to have only a reasonable number so that the members could get the best dramatic training possible under such conditions.

In the early part of the year, the club gave its assembly. The program was devoted to showing the school the fundamentals and types of acting. The purpose was illustrated by short sketches and monologues.

In December the members presented as their annual play, Comin' Thru' The Rye, a three-act comedy with a touch of mystery and romance, starring Elizabeth Buford and Lawrence Snoddy. A dance followed the play on the last night.

During the spring term the club gave its attention to preparing for participation in the annual one-act play contest at the University.

"C" CLUB

Lane's outstanding organization for the promotion of sportsmanship and the encouragement of participation in athletics is the "C" Club. This club is composed of boys who have played the required number of periods in one of the major sports. This fall, only four boys were in the club. Eleven more were taken in at the close of the football season, and two were added this spring for their work on the basketball team.

The emblem of this club is a large orange "C" which is usually worn on a black sweater to carry out the scheme of Lane's colors—orange and black. Mr. Harry Martin, coach of most of Lane sports, who has been so popular with the boys on his teams, was chosen as sponsor of the organization this year.

The "C" Club sponsors a dance each year, and supervises class softball, track, and field meets. This year it also sponsored an intramural basketball tournament to provide more experienced material for next year's team, and presented a trophy to the winning inter-class squad.

HOME ROOM ACTIVITIES

A change in the usual program for the home rooms was introduced this year. The home rooms provided themselves with officers and carried on their individual work and programs as though they were clubs.

Some rooms gave assemblies, some carried on work under a court trial system, some sponsored contests and debates, and some gave parties or wiener-roasts. All of the home rooms took part very eagerly in some activity.

The main reason for this change in the home room plan was to allow time for club meetings, staff meetings, and assemblies during the home room period and to give an opportunity for intensive study of spelling. A second reason was to individualize the home rooms as much as possible, and yet unify them to an extent by running them on the same basis.

In order to realize the greatest value from the home rooms, the widest possible participation by the pupils was sought. Such activities as checking the roll, opening exercises, looking into absences, visiting the sick, arranging and keeping the bulletin boards, making the room attractive, making graphs for attendance and scholastic standing, and planning programs for the home room, club meetings, assemblies, parties, and dances, gave every pupil an opportunity to serve in some capacity.

HOME ROOM ASSEMBLY: School for Rhythm

CLASS ROOM ACTIVITIES

A complete reorganization of the day's schedule was made at Lane this year. The school day, instead of lasting from nine o'clock to two-thirty, was lengthened forty minutes, now beginning at eight-fifty and closing at three o'clock. This new schedule provides for five one-hour class periods and a thirty-minute home room period. The arrangement gives time within the school day for field trips, laboratory periods, and extra-curricular activities which formerly had been carried on after school.

Some classes took charge of the columns of school news in the city newspaper. A journalism class was organized for work on the Midway Student. An English class started a Liars' Club which held contests among its members. For extra-curricular work, one history class took up the study of safety in detail. They had a state patrolman to come and tell them about safety on the highways. Another history class made maps and collected many pictures to illustrate their work. A civics class, while studying business of today, made bank charts containing checks, drafts, etc. They also studied the history of corporations. One teacher's class dramatized the economic stages of man from the hunting and fishing age to the machine age.

Although this was the first year of the change for more intensive class-room work, a general improvement occurred, and those classes which changed their work showed how the class room activities can be made more interesting and instructive.

THE CHAIN

Monday morning, 9:50, and the Chain staff gets together in Assembly Hall—left for another meeting! We hear the same old thing, “Where are the write-ups? Haven’t those senior pictures been taken yet? Have the snaps been identified? When are you going to get to work?” and so on through the rest of home room period.

Then comes the password, “We have to cut down on expenses; this annual is costing too much.” However, the bills pour in.

Our cause seemed to be lost. The classes never took field trips! There were no outside activities. It rained every day that was scheduled for pictures to be taken.

Meetings with Mr. Glover! They came “thick and fast.” So many things had to be discussed with him.

The day for the annual to go to press drew near. Was everything going to be ready? That eternal question bothered us for a long time, but finally completion appeared around the corner.

We’ve worked with it (at least, most of us have), and here’s hoping you will like it.

MIDWAY STUDENT

The Midway Student this session entered its fourth year as a Class "A" publication. Much progress was made during the year in the form of several new features and improvements in the old columns. The new columns included Wiggles and Giggles, a column containing humor and the Alumni Column, dealing with the "why, when, and where" of former Lane graduates. An old popular feature which was continued was the Cosmopolitan Courier, a column containing reviews of books and plays, and bits of news, written by James Quarles.

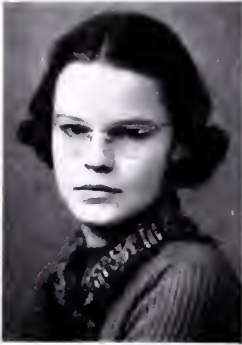

Many interesting and amusing answers were received when the entire school was invited to submit suggestions for the betterment of the paper.

To help the staff in writing its articles, one of the sponsors of the paper held a journalism class. This class was organized to teach the reporters the fundamentals of writing and to improve their write-ups. As was customary, the writers for the paper received credit for all articles.

In the spring term the system was changed slightly in that the paper was printed only once a month, whereas previously it was issued every three weeks.

THE BUMBLE BEE

During its twenty-eight years of publication, the Bumble Bee has contained the best contributions of the school in the field of literature. Featured among these have been short stories, editorials, essays, poems, and book reviews.

This magazine, published twice a year by representatives of the school body, does much to encourage literary efforts and ambition. All the pupils of the school are invited to contribute, and a great variety of material is received by this means and by the additional efforts of the staff. Even though a great many of the contributions are worthy of publication, it is the aim of the staff to use only the material of highest quality and merit.

At the graduation exercise in May, two prizes of ten dollars and five dollars each are offered by the School Board for the most outstanding short story, poem, and essay written during the preceding school year.

With the cooperation of the staff, sponsors, and contributors, the Bumble Bee has tried to keep up to the example set in earlier years and to prove a credit to the school.

THE ATHLETIC COUNCIL

WITH Mr. H. H. Walker as chairman, the Athletic Council has completely reorganized the awarding of letters for excellence in athletics. Faculty members on the Council besides Mr. Walker are Mrs. Irene Garrison Molyneaux, Miss Virginia Bolen, Mrs. Julia Yancy Alderman, and Mr. Harry Martin. This council in conjunction with the Student Council, decided that the "C" would be given for superior work on the varsity team of major sports. They designated the "L" for those who worked consistently on the varsity squads but failed to play in enough games, and for those who excelled in minor sports. This new ruling was made to give recognition to those who were interested enough to attend practices regularly but who lacked the requisites for representing the school in contests with other schools, and to give recognition to those sports at Lane which are not considered so seriously as others.

ATHLETICS

BOYS' COACH

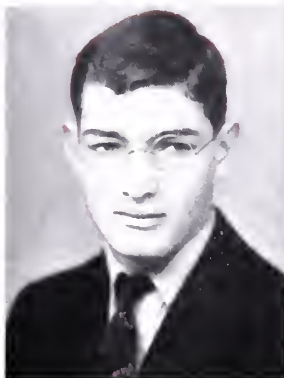

Coach Harry Martin came to Lane High School this year with an excellent record of athletic performances behind him. At Lane, he has coached football, basketball, and boxing. In all these sports he has turned out not only fighting but also sportsmanly teams, which is, after all, the best record possible for a leader of youth.

FOOTBALL RESUME'

With a light, fast team, Coach Harry Martin opened the 1938 football season with a 31-6 conquest of Lee High of Staunton. The first period saw no scoring, but ended with the ball on Staunton's eleven-yard line in possession of Lane. Kardos carried the ball over in the beginning of the second quarter for the first score. The try for extra point failed. Then, after Lane carried the ball again, Kardos passed to Barnett, who ran twenty-four yards to score. The try for extra point failed again, and the half ended with the score 12-0 in favor of Lane. In the third period, a long forward pass from Hasset to Homer resulted in Lee High's only score. Lane added two more touchdowns on nice ground plays and collected one extra point. The scoring was completed when Lushbaugh intercepted a Staunton pass and went over the goal line.

Lane bowed in defeat to George Washington High of Alexandria in the next contest in a night game dedicating the latter's new stadium. Lane fumbled the opening kick-off. Alexandria recovered and scored on their second play. They converted the extra point. George Washington High scored again at the beginning of the second period with a passing attack, but missed the try for extra point. The entire second half saw both teams fighting evenly, and neither was able to score. The game ended with the score: George Washington High 13; Lane High, 0.

Regaining the running column, Lane trounced Culpeper by the score of 26-0. The Lane-ites took the opening kick-off and went down the field to score seven points before Culpeper had a chance at the ball. There was no scoring in the second quarter, though Culpeper, led by their brilliant quarterback, May, played their best in this period. A forty-five-yard drive in the third quarter netted Lane's second touchdown. In the fourth quarter, Barnett and Kardos each scored a touchdown and the game ended with Lane on top, 26-0.

Lane's journey to Danville resulted in disaster for the Lane-ites. On a cloudless day, the Danville team swamped the Charlottesville eleven by the appalling score of 34-6. Features of the game were the Danville drum and bugle corps and the large crowd. Lushbaugh obtained the only Lane score when he made a touchdown in the second quarter.

LANE-ROBERT E. LEE GAME

On home ground again, Lane lost to Andrew Lewis High School of Salem in the third quarter when Hundle of the visitors, fell on a blocked punt which rolled over the goal for the only score. Lushbaugh attempted the punt after Lane got the ball on downs on her own one-yard line. Lane had one good scoring chance in this quarter but lost it on penalties. The rest of the game was fairly even and the final score was 2-0.

Lane's next loss was accomplished in the closing minute of play to Clifton Forge. The first three quarters were without special interest and saw no scoring. With only three minutes to play remaining, Disque passed to Smith, who ran fifty yards to score. Lushbaugh's try for extra point failed. After the Mountaineers got the ball on the kick-off, they opened up an aerial attack that paid dividends. Murray passed to Craft to tie the score and then kicked the extra point to send the visitors into a 7-6 lead they never relinquished.

Thomas Jefferson next defeated Lane by a 25-9 count. In the second quarter, Thomas Jefferson took the ball on her own five-yard line and with long gains soon reached the Lane goal. The Lane-ites frustrated the extra point attempt, and the first half ended with Richmond ahead, 6-0. Thomas Jefferson then made two touchdowns in the third quarter and one in the fourth. Lane scored her nine points in the final period with a touchdown, a conversion and a safety.

In the first quarter of the Glass-Lane game, Saunders, Lynchburg's fullback, intercepted a pass and went over for the only score of the game. The second half saw a fighting Lane eleven gain freely but lack sufficient punch to score. The game was marked by the muddy field and the running of Lane's substitute sophomore fullback, Carson Miller.

The final game on the Lane schedule was played with Hopewell at Scott Stadium. In the first half, two passes, one from Pritchard to Phelps and one from Phelps to Pritchard, made the score 12-0 for the Hopewell boys. Lane's only serious scoring threat came in the third quarter when the wearers of the Orange and Black marched from their own twenty-five-yard line to Hopewell's ten. The threat died there when Lane lost the ball on downs. In the fourth quarter, Pritchard again led Hopewell to pay dirt and passed to Phelps over the goal for the final score, 18-0.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL

Junior Coach

Lane's midget football squad showed up well in its only two encounters this year. Taylor's charges were the victors over the strong Woodberry Forest Juniors 12-0, but lost a close game to the Fluvanna Varsity 7-6.

In the second quarter of the Woodberry Forest game, Herbert Watson made a dash of thirty yards for a touchdown. In the fourth quarter, Virgil Leake hit the line, and weaving in and out, ran twenty-five yards and crossed the goal line.

In the Fluvanna game, the Lane Juniors were outweighed twenty pounds per man. Despite this disadvantage, the score was only 7-6. In the fourth quarter, Leake ran fifteen yards for a touchdown, Lane's only score of the encounter.

BASKETBALL

Basketball did not enjoy a successful season at Lane. The results were, on the whole, disappointing. All players worked faithfully in the face of difficulties, and Harry Martin proved to be a capable coach, but the Lane-ites lost a majority of their games. Lack of experienced reserves contributed in a large measure to the dismal season.

The wearers of the Orange and Black were several times disappointed by losing a game in the final minutes after they had been leading most of the time. Lane's opponents so far out-classed her in many contests that the final scores were humiliating.

BOXING

The 1938 boxing season at Lane was very impressive with two victories and a tie recorded by the fighting "Orange and Black." In fact, five of the boys—Billy Garth, Jimmy Kardos, Cecil Long, Bob Watson, and Henry Collier—finished the season undefeated.

The Lane-ites opened their season under Coach Harry Martin with a win over McIntyre High School, the county champions. After the final blow had been landed, the score was found to be 8-5 in favor of the home team.

Next on the list were the very worthy opponents, the Crozet boxers. The visitors started off very well but succeeded only in holding Lane to a 6-6 tie, which was very encouraging, as Crozet had one of the strongest teams in the state.

In their final match of the season, the Lane-ites fought with their backs to the wall to emerge with a close $7\frac{1}{2}$ - $6\frac{1}{2}$ victory over Meriwether Lewis. Billy Garth, the mainstay of the team, brought the crowd to their feet by dropping the captain of the visiting team twice in the first round to earn a T. K. O.

The victorious squad might have gone on to fight more, but further matches could not be negotiated.

Thus Lane has ended another season of boxing undefeated, having come through last year with a win and a tie. It is expected that the "manly art of self defense" will become a major sport at Lane before long.

TENNIS

This spring, Coach E. B. Smoot faces a tennis season which is, at this writing, unpredictable. The entire 1937 squad has been lost, and, although the new team is eager and shows a certain amount of talent, it lacks the valuable experience it should have to insure success. Last year's squad won six matches and lost only one. Robert Walker in the singles' division and Walker and Franklin Davis in the doubles' represented Lane in the Virginia Literary and Athletic League tournament last spring. Last year's successful results were:

BASKETBALL RESUME'

The girls' basketball team of Lane had renewed interest this year. Although the girls had no gymnasium of their own, many participated. Mrs. Alderman, the girls' coach, did her best to boost basketball.

The starting line-up at the first of the season consisted of Dinwiddie and Lang at guard, Disque at center, Glover and Marshall at side center, and Magann and Hawkins at the forward positions. This proved successful, so that the positions remained unchanged.

The basketekers cooperated and worked hard for the good of the team and not for individual honors.

The team offers no alibis for its showing but looks forward to brighter seasons. Most of our regulars will depart this year; nevertheless, next year's candidates expect to make a good showing.

Intramural basketball was started in the spring. Many girls went out, and they all worked hard. Games, held at the City Armory, attracted many spectators.

The school wishes to thank Coach Alderman and the team for its plucky showing. Despite the fact that it lost consistently, it, nevertheless, displayed good sportsmanship and plenty of spirit.

LANE-McINTYRE GAME

MINOR SPORTS

RIDING

Riding, one of the newest sports created at Lane, was under the direction of Mary Ellen and Virginia Brice. Just a few girls went out for riding this year, but this sport is expected to attract more students next year.

VOLLEYBALL

The girls out for volleyball this year were organized into two teams, the "Orange" and the "Black," which played each other several times during the season. The Orange Team practiced Monday and Wednesday, while the Black Team held the field on Tuesday and Thursday. Nancy Dinwiddie served as manager of volleyball and proved very able in that capacity.

SOFTBALL

The girls' softball team of Lane High started out very energetically this season. The games were scheduled for recess, and many were played. The girls were divided into two teams, each having a manager who served under the head manager, Virginia Dudley. One team met the other team every possible day for over a month.

HIKING

Under the leadership of Mrs. Alderman, hiking became a great pleasure and sport among the girls of Lane High. There were many supper hikes. This sport is steadily growing in popularity and is certain to be included in the girls' sport calendar from now on.

TENNIS

The girls' tennis team led by Jane Calhoun and Helen Burrows, winners of the senior and intermediate tennis tournament at Lane last year, concluded its second successful season of competition. Those who were among the chief prospects for a regular berth on the team were Kathleen Adams, Elizabeth Buford, Helen Burrows, Jane Calhoun, Alice Glover, Mary Frances Jarman, Nina Johnson, Mary Emily Peterson and Ann Walker.

TRACK

The track team recently organized for girls had a very good season. The team, coached by Mrs. Alderman, participated in the school field day and met with great success. The returning veterans for next year's team make the outlook for the future very promising as the majority of the regulars of this year's excellent team will be back.

Experience

LYNCHBURG ENGRAVED ANNUALS ARE BUILT UPON YEARS OF EXPERIENCE
AS SPECIALISTS IN THE FIELD OF SCHOOL PUBLICATIONS

I N successfully fulfilling the requirements of the modern College Annual Staff we have combined a comprehensive and systematic servicing program with that high standard of quality so essential in the production of fine yearbooks. Lynchburg engraved annuals are built by an organization specializing on school annuals exclusively, thereby assuring each staff of the personal and intelligent assistance so necessary in the planning and designing of a truly satisfactory book.
